FOREWORD

"Build . . . more stately mansions . . ." — the charge which Eastern Nazarene College has given us, her Soul. A colossal task, but with the endorsement of God in the past we have done valiantly. To be sure new challenges have arisen each year in the spiral of her existence, but in all we have been "more than conquerors through Him who loved us." Never content, however, to live on past laurels or to rest in present glory, we have recaptured the vision of her founders and have helped to build Eastern Nazarene College for our God and eternity.

Restated then, the call is to cultivate high-souls as well as stately mansions. Fortunately, our Alma Mater has placed at our disposal the means of realizing this end — a liberal education and a full gospel, working together to produce A Whole Man, dedicated to the service of God and of mankind.

...To one whose tireless efforts in behalf of Christian education has helped to make Eastern Nazarene College a fully accredited liberal arts college consecrated to the glory of God.

...To one whose personal devotion to Jesus Christ bears testimony to the reality of a life completely controlled by the Holy Spirit

...To one whose humanitarian concern is manifested in her sincere affection for her colleagues and the student body, including those who have come from other lands.

...To one whose life has been a fitting crescendo to her husband's "Symphony of Praise."

We, the Staff, dedicate The 1960 Nautilus to...

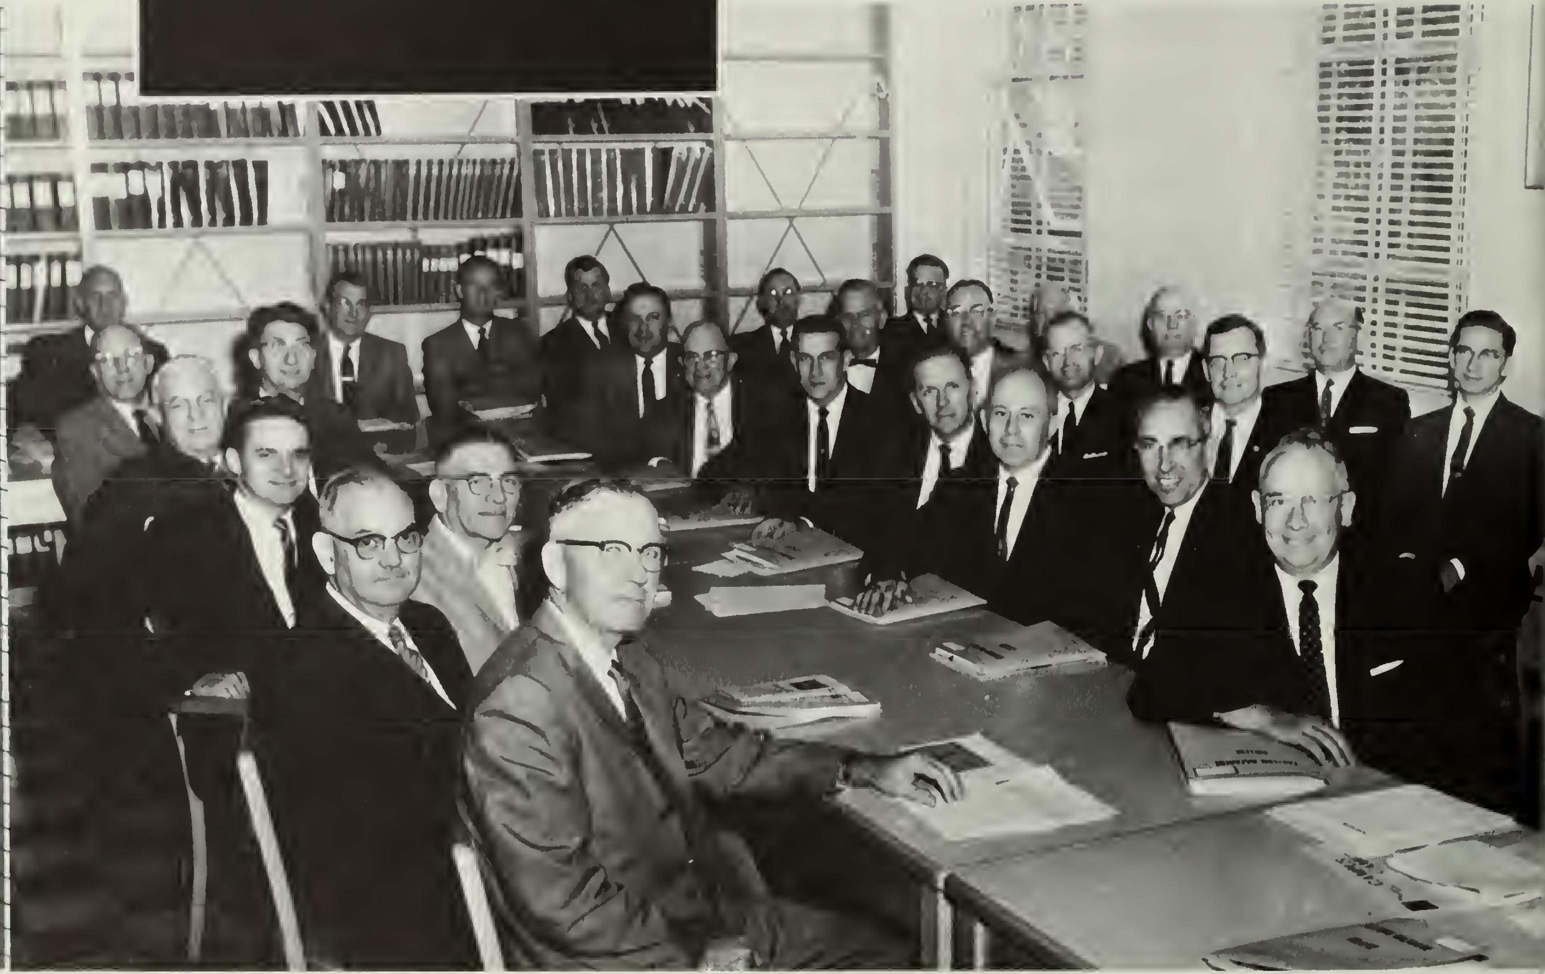
BOARD of TRUSTEES



ROW ONE: C. Taylor, C. Brown, R. Ingland, P. Gray, H. Gray, D. Pringle, C. Williams, E. Mann, E. Grosse, SECOND ROW: R. Smith, H. Parry, D. Powell, J. Albright, J. Bell, J. Andree, R. Goslaw, M. Wilson, J. Hunton, THIRD ROW: L. Gordon, W. Benson, W. Lanpher, A. Sampson, H. Heckert, J. Patton, J. Wagner, R. Acheson, W. Allshouse, G. Douglas.

The responsibility of the control of our college is entrusted to the Board of Trustees, made up of representatives from each district, all district superintendents, two members of the Alumni Association, and the President of the college, Dr. Edward S. Mann. They meet here, with the Development Council, on the last Wednesday of each September.

Dr. Mann inserts Student Handbook into the cornerstone of Spangenburg Hall.

Miss Alice Spangenberg places the first trowel of mortar on the cornerstone of Spangenberg Hall.

The Development Council, under the direction of Reverend Stephen Nease, is made up of successful laymen from our Educational Zone together with the Board of Trustees. From year to year their resources of knowledge and experience, bring the E.N.C. ideal nearer to tangible realization. In evaluating the problems involved in an expanding E.N.C., they help to shape our future.

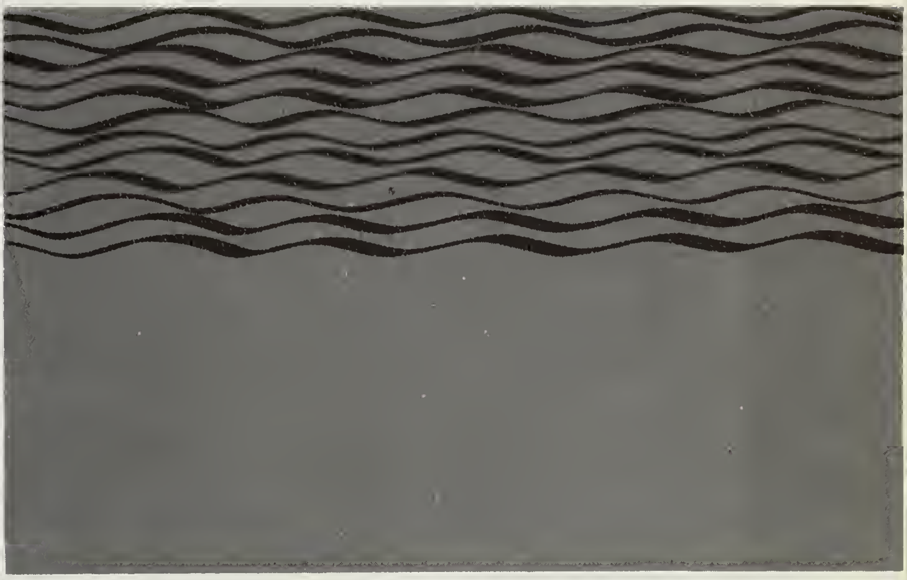
DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

THE PRESIDENT

This has been a year for the setting of goals. The report of the President's Commission on National Goals and the essays accompanying it have provoked discussion throughout America.

Here on our campus both faculty and students have been studying, evaluating and re-defining the goals for E.N.C. One result of this venture has been an unprecedented sense of common commitment to the ideals of our Alma Mater. There has also been added insight into, and better understanding of, the stated objectives of the college. And new constitutional machinery has been devised which should aid in the more perfect attainment of our goals.



This has also been a year for the setting of personal goals in the lives of individual students. Some of these objectives will have been realized by the successful completion of your courses, or perhaps, by your graduation from college. Other goals will not be reached so quickly. But, remember, "Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands. But like the sea-faring man on the desert of waters, you choose them as your guides and following them you will reach your destiny."

"He demands of us our lives for the sakes of each other." The handsome passion-tender, contagious, radiant love . . . Christianity demonstrated; escape into reality. Christ lifted up in her. She has "done likewise"; a God-bearing image for many.

Alvin H. Kauffman
DEAN

Dean Kauffman organizes E.N.C.'s curriculum, serves as chairman of the Committee on Academic Policy, teaches psychology and philosophy, counsels on schedule problems, and serves as E.N.C.'s representative to various conferences on academic policy. He is quietly versatile — often called on to use his skills in speaking, writing, and as an artist.

Exercising the use of "right reason," do we have a theological sort of philosophy? — a philosophical sort of theology? All truth is one, and One.

Calling to life these dry bones; shades of the Schoolmen! Learning is very well, but, if we can, assimilate "existentially"; Kierkegaard's "purity of heart," Tillich's "ultimate concern."

WORSHIP

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dr. T. E. Martin

During the last election we were often reminded that a former president had said, "This generation of Americans has a rendezvous with destiny." We agree, but believe that more important, this generation has a rendezvous with God.

This encounter must not be circumscribed by the kind of pre-conceived notions which attempt to predetermine the essential character of the event. Rather, we must come to the rendezvous with open hands, open minds, and above all, open hearts.

God speaks to us from many vantage points. His voice is heard along every path of human traverse. Where and when this thrilling meeting will occur we may not be able to predict, but that it will there can be no doubt.

But a rendezvous with God unhindered by any reluctance to accept His will and presence and be accepted of Him makes every other event meaningful and satisfying. If it has not come, seek Him. If you do not know how, "try Christ's way."

T. E. Martin

Carroll Bradley, Superintendent of the Sunday School.

James Cameron, N.F.M.S. President.

N. Y. P. S.

One well attended function of the total N.Y.P.S. program is the monthly Singspiration. As most of the other varied programs, each designed to bring into spiritual unison the young people of both community and college, it provides the needed lift to begin a new week.

The hour of N.Y.P.S. each week selects topics and speakers of pertinent interest. It also sponsors the prayer cells and the N.Y.P.S. revival.

COUNCIL: SEATED: B. Albert, P. Anthony. STANDING: D. Brewer, P. Ward, G. Swank.

"Music is a ministry in itself" which cannot parallel any other form of communication. The songs of our church choir, under the direction of Professor Gary Moore and accompanied by Mrs. Patricia Foley at the organ, bring us close to Christ and are a valuable and essential part of the church worship services.

CHURCH CHOIR

HOSPITAL CHOIR

The Hospital Choir.

The Hospital Choir, consisting of members of the Evangelistic Association, finds its avenue of service in various hospitals and nursing homes throughout the Quincy area. The choir meets and goes out each Sunday afternoon thus offering a challenging opportunity to the winning of souls, as well as to provide valuable experience for future laymen and ministers of the gospel.

ASSOCIATION

The Evangelistic Association, with the largest student participation on campus, has also perhaps the largest responsibility; responsibility to God, to fellow men . . . to like. Members of the association form teams and travel to various areas of service which offer invaluable experience to the future minister and layman. Herein lies the opportunity to witness and win souls to the kingdom.

STUDENT MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Student Ministerial Association is that our future ministers might be better prepared to impart the truth of God, as they enter into full-time work for Him.

The organization has been one of continued inspiration, in providing fellowship and an outlet for service through its various activities.

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul . . .
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!"

Impatient wife, C. Lampher, looks at oratorical Senator, A. Duckworth, as he expresses awe for world problems.

G. Gutshall asks if Christmas can really be found here.

SENIOR SNEAK

"ON TOP OF BLACK MOUNTAIN"
tune: "On Top of Old Smoky"

At five in the morning
We woke with a start
For this was the day
We were s'posed to depart.

And down through the bus aisle
Came Donald MacKay
Said you can ski home
Unless you pay.

At the foot of Black Mountain
With Whitney's ahead
We got into trouble
Shortsheeting Prof's bed.

The weather was cold
About 20 below
On all the ski slopes
There was plenty of snow.

The food was delicious
There was plenty to eat
Nine to ten breakfast
And seconds on meat.

Jim started by skating
And oh how he ached
In spite of his tumbles
Our prexy was great.

Marilyn skied backwards
Without a flop
McKenzie did better
Skiing over a rock.

Lennie and Tarzan
Were racing all day
Lennie beat Tarzan
'Cause he knew the way.

Joyce and Beulah
Learned to skate
After falling ten times
Made puzzles and ate.

Reeves and Ritchie were skiing
When suddenly there arose
A tree in the pathway
Where everyone goes.

Reeves dropped on his fanny
To avoid the tree
Ritchie flopped by
On just one ski.

Carolyn went skiing
To pose for Jack Shankel
But coming down sideways
She knotted her ankle.

Glenna was skating
The very best
But then she tried skiing
And fell like the rest.

Charlie's first time on skis
Went up the hill
Came straight down again
Without a spill.

Jocko was tired
Went straight off to bed
While visions of Jeanie
Danced in his head.

Eileen and Dottie
The hikes they led
'Cause Biology field trips
Had gone to their head.

Sandy Reeves
Ski instructions took
From a handsome instructor
And Brucie got shook.

Judy and Chris
Up the mountain too late
The ski patrol got frozen
Chaperoning their date.

Ginny and Joanie
To breakfast came late
'Cause getting up early
Is something they hate.

Helen and Alan
Fought in the snow
And skating together
Made quite a show.

Henck, Shankel and Willwerth
Snowshoeing today
Tramped on the ski trails
And got in the way.

Of skiing and skating
We've all had our fill
Whitneys' will be happy
When we pay our bill.

Sunset in the mountains
God's presence so near
Devotions together
Communion so dear.

Chris Farrell discovers a new way to ski.

Accidents do happen.

Art McKenzie decides that it is time for a rest.

A favorite pastime.

A wonderful time has come to a close.

Judy Kinsey, Carolyn Lanpher, and Glenna Olsen take time out to relax.

NAUTILUS

The NAUTILUS, one of the most valuable publications on campus, is edited to present each student with a record and review of the year's activities. With each deadline we experienced the last minute sorting of pictures, arranging of layout and copy sheets, checking and double checking each page, but somehow piecing together from it all an unmistakable theme that left us a feeling of gratification. We present to you in anticipation of your pleasure, the 1961 NAUTILUS.

SIGMA DELTA SIGMA

SIGMA COUNCIL: SEATED: L. Gerhart, E. Zollinhofer, C. Reynolds. STANDING: A. MacKenzie, G. Swank, K. Kern, J. Barefoot, S. Nease, D. Diffenderfer.

"Through the ages" was the theme of this year's ingenious Sigma Rush Day display. The new members and old, fresh ideas, combined with traditions, sports, outings, elections, and prayer, proved once again what a grand time of fun and fellowship is offered through the activities of the Sigma Society.

Another very fine group of musical talent at Eastern Nazarene College is the Women's Glee Club. It affords to all interested girls the opportunity for learning much. Beside co-operation for a particular purpose, that of meeting and practicing secular and sacred music, they are quickly introduced to performing as a group before an audience. They also aid annually in the presentation of Handel's Messiah, as well as appearing in church services.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Appearing in many concerts on the campus and in the community, the Men's Glee Club has become an integral part of the college's musical program. Each fellow is dedicated to produce a closely blended male chorus, which has been described as "possibly the finest measure of talent congregated, would be male voices in choir." With this as inspiration they continually add a lustre to all the programs in which they attend.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

To properly understand all the patience, practice, and perseverance put into each individual selection of the monumentally inspiring group, you would have to be a member; yet, to listen and enjoy them in concert is a privilege we esteem among the finest we know each year. The A Cappella Choir is ENC's goodwill gospel ambassadors in the neighboring communities, on campus, on the school zone, and in the hearts of those they reach in song.

DEBATE

Pat Ward, Ken Whitehead, Judy William.

Debate — one of the most challenging intellectual experiences that is afforded a college student. Through debate he is given countless opportunities in which to match his skill and knowledge in convincing presentation of either a negative or an affirmative side of a controversial subject. Debaters spent many hours in research as they prepared to meet with the teams of various colleges and universities in the East. New tournaments in which they participated were with Brown and Northwestern.

Ron Ward and Pat Ward do research for Debate.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Honor Society was established to provide recognition to those students who were outstanding in scholastic achievement and to encourage others to attain and maintain high scholastic standing through discipline and campus-wide interest in scholarship. The student who attains honor grades is, in accordance with this, becoming better prepared to enter graduate school, the professional world and will ultimately discover his goal within a goal.

QUE SCAIS JE, is a literary journal that is published by the Literature-Speech Club. This is a relatively new publication that has just finished its second year in print. QUE SCAIS JE is a collection of the best student creative writing, both poetry and prose. A student may submit as many works as he desires. The selections to be printed are then decided upon by a student committee.

The Student-Faculty Wives Association of Eastern Nazarene College is organized to provide fellowship for the married and unmarried women associated with the college. Under the leadership of President Mrs. Richard Morris the association had several very interesting programs. The annual fall tea was held in October for the purpose of introducing new members into the club. One of the outstanding events of the year took place in February when the student faculty wives joined the faculty wives and went out to enjoy a Valentine's Day Smorgasbord.

STUDENT FACULTY WIVES

MATH CLUB

The Math Club.

The Math Club was newly organized at the beginning of the year by students interested in the promotion of a greater and wider interest in this vital and challenging field. Under the guidance of their faculty adviser, Professor J. R. Naylor, the club held several meetings, and provided a means through which members were able to view by television a math program each morning at 6:30.

— N CLUB —

To be selected into this sport centered and activated club depends upon a student's athletic ability which includes all of the sportsmanlike conduct that ENC, the "N" Club, and sports lovers find to be the most valuable contribution a person can invest in a game. Some of the activities of the "N" Club are the refreshments and programs furnished at the home basketball games and also sponsorship of the intra-society sports program.

DELTA

Coming out on top in the first season of volleyball at ENC were the Deltas, who clinched the victory in a final game against the Kappa Society. Hard, but enjoyable work plus plenty of participation from both A and B teams made the year an exciting and profitable one for the society.

J. Free makes a successful return for the Deltas.

P. Cunningham tips one over for the Deltas.

ROW ONE: D. Gilroy, R. May, D. Greenwood. ROW TWO: C. Pillsbury, J. Wooling, D. Whippo, D. Johnson, T. Moreland.

VOLLEYBALL

KAPPA

With the announcement of boys' volleyball in the place of the traditional football, the Kappas quickly gathered, separated into newly-formed A and B teams and were off to a good season. Perhaps their most unforgettable moment will be those fateful few seconds in the final game.

SIGMA DELTA SIGMA

After a rather disappointing season for the Sigmas, the team rallied with the help of Jim Barefoot and Ray Baltz. However, the odds were too great to make a difference in the standings, and the Sigmas came in fourth. Their record was 3—6.

A Sigma and a Delta try for the rebound.

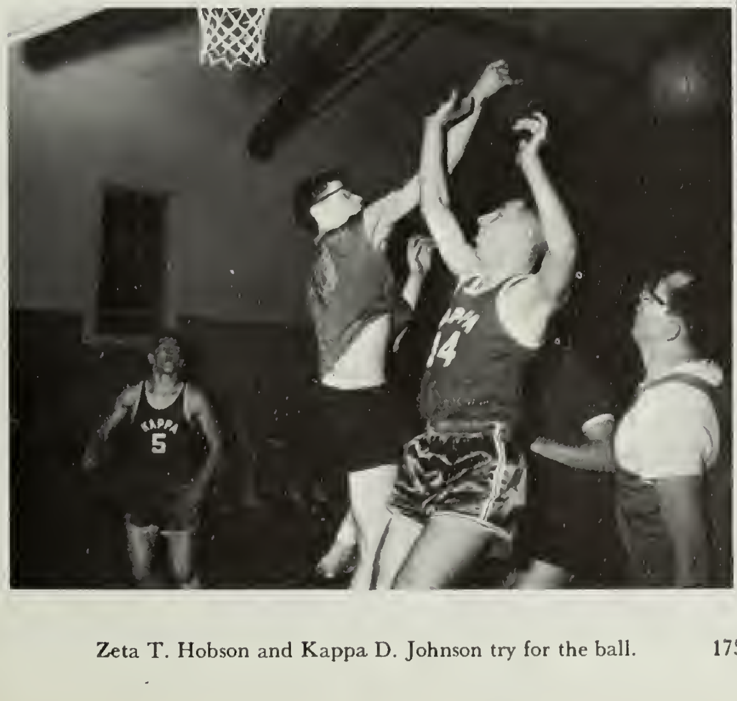
Sigma Woody O'Dell scores against the Deltas.

ROW ONE: J. Smith, R. Holbert, P. Holloway, G. Tse, L. Casler. ROW TWO: T. Hobson, T. Kauffman, P. Pierce, J. Huggins, R. Falke.

SIGMA DELTA ZETA

The Zetas, overpowered in their last game by the Kappas, fell into a second place tie with their opponent. Good sportsmanship and hard playing left little room for disappointment in the team as it developed throughout the year. Their record is 4—5.

J. Paynter scores despite the efforts of Zeta J. Smith.



Zeta T. Hobson and Kappa D. Johnson try for the ball.

E. Anderson tries to score against the Zetas.

S. Jeffery scores for the Deltas.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The invigorating sport of basketball became the major interest of girl athletes as another season of volleyball was wrapped up. Anticipated by the four societies was the addition of freshman girls who had had previous experience in playing basketball, and as the season began the teams were strengthened. Each of the games provided a spirit of good sportsmanship, physical exercise for the girls, and excitement and relaxation not only to the participants, but to spectators as well.

E. Anderson scores for the Detals.

SIGMA

ROW ONE: D. Thompson, L. Zollinhofer, J. Barner. ROW TWO: H. Nutter, B. Byers, S. Adams, N. Baird, J. Pringle.

EVERYTHING FOR THE CHURCH

STAINED GLASS MEMORIAL WINDOWS

Made To Your Specifications
All Styles, Shapes, and Periods
Any Subject Matter Can Be Treated or Adopted

To furnish guidance to church building committees, donors, and architects we have recently prepared a filmstrip of 56 natural color photographs of stained glass windows portraying the life of Jesus Christ. These windows were created in our studios for churches of many denominations all over the country, and are representative of a wide price range. This filmstrip with an interpretative guide is available on a loan basis or it can be purchased outright for $6.00. Ask for No. 5000. The Life of Jesus Christ as Portrayed in Stained Glass.

CHURCH
FURNITURE

Our church furniture is distinctive and beautiful, in authentic period designs. Superb hand carving and expert craftsmanship make our communion tables, seats, pulpits and other ecclesiastical furnishings well suited for their high purpose. We can plan our arrangements to match your present furnishings. Send for our free catalogue on church furniture.

The American Yearbook Company Plant at Hannibal, Missouri.

The thirty-ninth volume of the NAUTILUS could never have been published without the wonderful cooperation of each member of the staff.

In addition we would like to thank Ed, Jack, and Bob of Miller Studio, Tom McHugh and Harold Gilbert of the American Yearbook Company, Dr. Alvin H. Kauffman, our faculty adviser, and to all the advertisers who made the 1961 NAUTILUS financially possible.
